

Debate Brainstorm Instructions

Each group should make sure to keep track of each member's progress and dedication. A meeting log is recommended, which consists of the following:

- Meeting date and time interval
- Each member's job and progress during the meeting

It is also important to create a master version of resource/outline, which includes:

- Proper introduction of your topic.
 - What does the topic mean?
 - A catch/pitch to get audiences' attention
- Background information of your topic (Origin, culture, time etc.)
- Ideas and examples
 - Facts to proof
 - How does it help your position/stand
- Conclusion
 - A summary of your presentation
 - Restate why do you think these examples fortify your stand
